

B O D E G A

TORO

CENTENARIO

Los Caminantes – “The Wayfarers” – honors Argentina’s renowned wine pioneers, Juan Giol and Bautista Gargantini, founders of Vino Toro, two humble Swiss-Italian immigrants who fulfilled their destiny to create Argentina’s most popular wine.

Varietal: Red Blend

Production Zone: Valle Central, Mendoza, Argentina.

Winemaking

Manual harvesting.

Reception and destemming.

Fermentation with selected yeasts at controlled temperature in stainless steel tanks.

Clarification.

Cut formation.

Filtration.

Bottling.

Aging

4 months in american and french oak barrels.

Tasting Notes

This wine exhibits an intense bright red color, accompanied by aromas of red and black fruits, followed by notes of vanilla. On the palate, it is friendly, balanced, smooth and with a pleasant finish.

bodegatorocentenario.com

vinotoro_ok