

B O D E G A

TORO

CENTENARIO

Los Caminantes – “The Wayfarers” – honors Argentina’s renowned wine pioneers, Juan Giol and Bautista Gargantini, founders of Vino Toro, two humble Swiss-Italian immigrants who fulfilled their destiny to create Argentina’s most popular wine.

Variedad: 100% Malbec.

Production Zone: Valle Central, Mendoza, Argentina.

Winemaking

Manual harvesting.

Reception and destemming.

Fermentation with selected yeasts at controlled temperatura in stainless steel tanks.

Clarification.

Filtration.

Bottling.

Aging

4 months in american oak barrel.

Tasting Notes

This wine exhibits an intense bright red color with violet hues, accompanied by fruity aromas such as cherries and plums, followed by hints of vanilla from the contact with oak. On the palate it has a friendly entry with good structure, soft and round tannins, very balanced and long finish.